

Get Curious about Family Learning

Clarington families can monkey around with Curious George as he makes a special appearance at Clarington Winter WonderLearn. This family learning festival, now in its fifth year, takes place on Saturday, February 23rd from 11am to 3pm at the Courtice Community Complex.

Encourage your child's curiosity with fun and free activities hosted by over a dozen local organizations, enter a chance to win one of forty Curious George books, participate in games and enjoy a horse-drawn wagon ride. Families can also attend a Musical Families workshop at 11:00 am, meet special visitors from the Bowmanville Zoo at 12:00 pm, be amazed by a multimedia presentation on astronomy at 1:30, and enjoy a free family swim from 1:30 to 4:00 pm.

Clarington Winter WonderLearn is organized by Clarington Public Library in partnership with the Municipality of Clarington, the Visual Arts Centre of Clarington, Clarington Board of Trade, Clarington Museums and Archives and Ontario Power Generation. Generous funding from Ontario Power Generation, Laura Sciore and Associates and Square Boy Pizza contributes to the success of this annual event which attracts more than 1,000 people.

Enjoy an opportunity to move your body, exercise your mind and shake off the winter blahs at this fun family event on Saturday, February 23rd from 11am to 3pm at the Courtice Community Complex, 2950 Courtice Road. A complete line-up of activities can be found at www.clarington-library.on.ca and you can call Clarington Pubic Library at 905-623-7322 for more information.

- END -

Going bananas over Curious George

Winter WonderLearn committee members Tammy Johnson, Susan Mariglia Bosgraaf, Trevor Pross and Vanessa Hughes are pictured with the forty books children can win at this year's event.