Discussion Questions

State of Terror by Louise Penny and Hillary Rodham Clinton

1. In the title “State of Terror”, what state are the authors referring to?
2. Do you think the former US President Eric Dunn and Russian President Ivanov are based on actual people, and if so, what are the similarities?
3. When Secretary Ellen Adams arrived at the State of the Union address disheveled, the media heavily commented and criticized her appearance. Would they have done the same if she were a man?
4. Ellen has a good relationship with one child and a strained relationship with the other. Is this a typical American family dynamic?
5. Do you feel Ellen is respected in her position as Secretary of State? Do you think the role of Secretary of State in this book is accurate?
6. If you were faced with a similar dilemma would you choose faith, family, or country?
7. A lion is referenced three times in the book; Fables of Bidpi (pg. 262), the story of Gilgamesh (pg. 272), and operation Lion Heart (pb. 340). Who do you think the lion is?
8. Which “A-ha” moment surprised you the most?
9. The Grand Ayatollah Khosravi is the purportedly humble spiritual leader of Iran, however he has vast power, money and influence. Is he an anomaly amongst spiritual leaders?

The above questions were developed by staff at the Clarington Public Library for your discussion of the book.

Author Biography

Louise Penny is an international award winning and bestselling author whose books have hit #1 on the New York Times, USA TODAY, and Globe and Mail (Toronto) lists.
